STORYTELLER COLLECTION

CELEBRATING THE ART OF NARRATION THROUGH DESIGN

2026 Storyteller Collection Overview

The art of storytelling is nothing new. Authors, cinematographers, philosophers, and countless others have devoted their life’s work to shaping narratives through their craft. But what happens when we view storytelling through the lens of textiles? While it may seem simple, the spaces where we live, work, and play should speak to us. They hold our memories, capture our attention, and quietly shape our daily experiences, often without us even realizing it.

Brentano’s Fall 2026 collection, Storyteller, explores this idea, using textiles as its narrative medium. Each piece is thoughtfully woven to bring meaning and depth to a space. Textures build layers of comfort, while patterns spark curiosity, creating a sense of movement and discovery within the environment. As with all art, interpretation is subjective, yet Storyteller reveals a shared truth: there is comfort in nostalgia in all its forms, and beauty in reimagining the past through a modern lens.

Featuring nine new textiles and one wallcovering, the Storyteller collection offers a retro escape infused with groovy nostalgia and contemporary sophistication. This immersive assortment brings vintage inspiration to life through richly expressive, tactile designs set against playful, throwback influences. Designers can expect curated colorways, dynamic textures, and statement-making patterns, creating a transporive experience that celebrates storytelling through design.

V116 Agnes

Sometimes a story is told via the emotion of texture, rather than words, and that is the case for Brentano's new wallcovering pattern Agnes. Inspired by artist Agnes Martin, often referred to as the “Mystic Minimalist”, this meditative pattern is composed of a subtle, cloud-like grid. Available in 9 refreshing colorways, from Everest Peak to Mount Blue and Shade Plant, this bleach cleanable option is intended to create spaces for peaceful reflection. Brentano's first venture into Circon® quality wallcovering, this bio-sourced, carbon-neutral, and fully recyclable Type II vinyl is not only full of nuanced elegance but also has a palpable green story. With a horizontal repeat of 51", this refined organic texture is ready to be installed (random match, reverse hang) to best welcome anyone into a deep breath, embracing the serenity of the moment.
