TEXTILES + WALLCOVERINGS

VIDA

“The Vida collection celebrates our inspirations from ordinary things,” says Founder and Artistic Director Iris Wang. “The ability to see beauty in our daily lives is necessary for creativity.”

With riveting selections and colorways, the Brentano Design Studio has mastered the movement of creating art out of everyday life.

JOURNAL

New hybrid polyurethane with a 100% Silicone face.

PRICE

All products in the Vida collection are priced at under $99.

BLEACH

The entire collection is bleach cleanable with the exception of Clockwork and Pendulum.

ANASTASIA

A 57" width fabric, woven from 65% polyester and 35% post-consumer recycled polyester, and utilizing SEAQUAL® YARN, Anastasia is an environmentally conscious product working to solve issues with an abundance of marine litter; a subtle parallel to its namesake meaning resurrection. Like light hitting the ocean waves as they break on the shore, Anastasia has a beautiful texture of varying depths in 8 colorways. Anastasia ranks among Brentano's most eco-friendly fabrics and is available for possible LEED points.

ASPEN

Aspen, named after the tree species, is a welcomed addition to Brentano's indoor/outdoor fabric line with a tonal pattern and subtle raised texture. A 55" width fabric coming in 5 soft-spoken neutrals, including Meerkat and Tundra Wolf, Aspen is a relaxed addition to outdoor spaces vastly differing from its sassy sister, Sassafras. This tactile textile is both restrained and chic, making it a soothing addition to design spaces needing staple anchor fabrics for indoor/outdoor environments.

CARRICK

Carrick is an extraordinary textured fabric highlighting the intricate and nuanced beauty of fibers. This complex textile was created using a novelty yarn that is cabled before weaving, giving Carrick its sophisticated, braided face; a nod to the Carrick knot, after which it was named. A durable and smart choice for outdoor design applications, this textile is also a handsome selection for benches, headboards, and seating areas in high traffic spaces.

Contents:

100% Solution-Dyed Polypropylene

CLOCKWORK

Affectionately named Clockwork for its expected regularity and structure, the multi-layering of colors in the warp and weft gives this contemporary pattern added flair by creating layers of depth and intricate overlays like the minutes, hours, and seconds on a clock. In 8 captivating colorways like Redwood and Picasso Stone, Clockwork's stunning colorwork sets this sophisticated wool-blend apart from traditional flannels, making it a lively addition to corporate breakout spaces or a handsome selection for residential sofas.

GOLDEN HOUR

The foundation for the Vida collection, this standout pattern was created by compiling still photos and time-lapse videos of the sun casting shadows on foliage and windowpanes onto the carpet at Brentano's headquarters.

The Brentano Design Studio tirelessly reimagined the images and video to capture the precise union of light, timing, and layers to produce this fabric design. The organic, textural pattern blends light and dark tones with a speckled design to mimic how the light diffused off the surface as the sun was setting.

HOMESTEAD

Homestead, a Design Studio favorite, is a contemporary graphic pattern with tribal characteristics. The linear qualities within the field of the fabric and the pencil-like nature of the geometric design combine to create a dynamic fabric pattern ideal for roof-top bars or poolside lounges.

IMO Wheelmark Certified, Homestead is a lively choice for marine applications designed for harsh UV elements. Brentano's Tri-sistant finish can be applied for additional security in high traffic environments.

INTERVAL

Interval uses random repeated pauses to create a dynamic abstract pattern like segmented breaks throughout our day. The 54" upholstery comes in 9 unique but usable color combinations like Coastal Escape and Georgia Clay. This small-scale multi-colored fabric adds a pop of pizzazz to healthcare and contract applications, whether it be for waiting rooms or office lounges. Interval is the ultimate heavy duty, quirky colored fabric selection for environments needing the utmost durable fabric selections.

INK SAFE

A 54" width hybrid polyurethane with a 100% Silicone face, Journal is a luxurious and supple textile selection that stays true to Brentano's mantra of beauty + performance.

This minimally textured faux leather is InklSafe and bleach cleanable, with a plush knitted backing for an exceptional tensile strength without sacrificing its soft hand. Ideal for high-traffic hospitality, contract, or healthcare applications, Journal comes in 10 usable colorways, including Gesso and Dusty Mauve.

MASALA

Masala is a speckled, small-scale indoor/outdoor textile constructed from fine polypropylene yarns, available in 10 colorways. A beautiful complement to Homestead and Golden Hour, Masala is a textural wonder with two-toned colorways elevating its rich texture to create a wide selection of colors in a full range of rich hues, including cheerful tones and useful neutrals. A durable selection for beachside lounges or contract seating, Masala is a versatile fabric also suitable for upholstered wall panels and passes ASTM E-84 Unadhered.

Contents:

100% Solution-Dyed FR Polypropylene

PENDULUM

Drawing inspiration from the repetitive and sweeping nature of a Pendulum in a grandfather clock, this 56" wide textile uses vertical stripes to create a repeating pattern with subtle color shifts. Diverging from the handsome colorways of its sister fabric Clockwork, Pendulum comes in 6 soft, serene colorways, including Birch Bark and Cape Cod. Also suitable for residential drapery, Pendulum makes a statement when paired with a box pleat for a polished contemporary look.

RENATA

A welcoming chenille, Renata's soft hand is a charming addition to commercial spaces while still maintaining the beauty and performance Brentano has come to be known for. A 57" wide fabric, with an artful nod to the neo-deco trend; Renata's swooping curves and sleek geometrics offer a distinctive and exciting patterning for commercial spaces.

Aesthetically pleasing to the eye, Renata, meaning reborn, has a unique 10-inch vertical repeat of geometric elements subtly mimics the contour of a plastic water bottle.

SASSAFRAS

A quirky indoor/outdoor fabric, Sassafras uses neutrals and bright colors to create a contrasting pattern that mimics tree bark's intricate peaks and valleys. Like a Sassafras tree in the fall, this 55" width textile is a wonder in 9 playful colorways, including Spiced Rum and Bali Surf. A bold selection, Sassafras is a perfect pairing for a patio, pool party, or design spaces needing added flair.

CENTRAL

Long enamored with the nuanced subtleties of the concrete structures scattered throughout their daily commutes, the Brentano Design Studio sought to create a multi-colored, textured wallcovering with beauty and balance. Pulling inspiration from the details within concrete, the design team meticulously worked to create a synergy between warm and cool tones.
